THE SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Admitted to Practise-Attorney W the United States court this morning, the application being granted by U. S. Judge Marshall.

Halley's Comet Arrives-Halley's comet may be seen any evening in the west when the sky is clear, about 7 o'clock, 15 to 20 degrees above the horizon by use of a telescope or field

Band Concerts at the Post-The fine weather has brought out the Fifteenth infantry band, and while the skies are fair and atmosphere balmy, open air concerts on the post plaza are being given. Circular for Dairymen-Food Commissioner Hansen is preparing a pamphlet containing the state dairy laws with suggestions for dairymen for circulation with the hope of improving dairies throughout the state. State Insurance Receipts-The state insurance department did a land office business during February, when the receipts of the office amouted to $36,197.00. The March re-ceipts are already over $2,000.

Quick Mail Service-Local busines men are appreciative of the advan-tage enjoyed in the quick mail serv-ice between Salt Lake and Chicago. A letter mailed in Chicago, at 6 p. m. March 1, was delivered in this city on the 3rd inst., at 3 p. m.

Funeral of Richard Ryan-Funeral services of Richard Ryan were held this afternoon, from St. Mary's cathe-dral. The deceased came to this city live years ago from Omaha, and was killed last week, by falling from a freight car at Ruth, Nev., where he Bibles are Scarce—Bibles are much needed at the state prison, where one inmate says there is hardly a whole Bible to be had. Citizens with Bibles to spare, or who may be disposed to buy them for the prison, are invited to exercise their charitable inclinations in this direction.

Pat Mending the Streets—P. J. Moran, the official contractor, began repairing the streets last Saturday. He has more than 100 men at work on the business streets and thousands of yards of asphalt will be removed and replaced with new material. The repairs will cost the city about $20,- Welsh Society Social—The Sons and Daughters of Wales will give an entertainment in Federation hall Tuesday evening, free to the public, the program including a speech by Lon Haddock, baritone solo from A. C. Gibbs, a mandolin solo from P. C. Williams and violin selections from Edward Michael.

To Discuss Amalgamation—Leaders of the Commonweal Industrial company and the Mutual Supply company will meet tonight at Unity hall to consider the matter of amalgamation of interests. Both these companies have as their object the lowering of prices, and naturally think it will be for the best good of the work in hand to join forces.

Arrested for Forgery—Charged with forging a check and passing the same on an Ogden firm about a week ago, D. H. Harris was placed under arrest Sunday by a deputy sheriff and turned over to the Ogden authorities. The Ogden police believe Harris responsible for the forgery and the matter is being investigated in the Junction city. Arrested for Forgery-Charged Church Debt being Wiped Out-The finance committee of the First Presbyterian church expects that in six months the church debt subscrip-tions will all have been paid in, bar-ring 1 to 1½ per cent uncollectable. The entire membership of the church, from the pastor down, will then draw a long sigh of relief and feel like sing-

Elks Going to Eureka—One Tuesday March 29, the local lodge of Elks will run a special train to Eureka and as many of the antiered herd as can go will make the trip. The occasion will be the dedication of the Eureka lodge. The special will be run over the Salt Lake Route, leaving here at 1 o'clock and returning from Eureka immediately after the festivities.

Descried his Family-George H. Descried his Family—George H. Steegle of Pleasant Grove, was arrested Sunday by Deputy Sheriff Emery on the charge of failure to provide for his wife and five children. It is alleged that Steegle left his family in November and since that time they have been in destitute circumstances. Sheriff Judd of Provotook the man to that city for trial.

Funeral of Robt. F. Pence—Mount Moriah lodge No. 2, F. & A. M., had charge of the funeral of Robert E. Pence, who died of paralysis Saturday, which was held at the Masonic temple Sunday, the burial following at Mount Olivet cemetery. The Rev. P. A. Simpkin and the Rev. L. S. Bowerman were the speakers. The music was by the Immanuel Bantist church man were the speakers. The music was by the Immanuel Baptist church

Miner Caught in Cave-In—Robert Attison, a miner aged 36 years, is at the Keogh-Hammond hospital suffering from cuts and bruises about the head and shoulders as a result of a cave-in at the Butler mine at Bingham. Attison was pinned down by a large quantity of dirt and rock. While his injuries are painful they are not considered serious and the man will recover.

Music Contests at Granite—Friday and Saturday nights of this week, most interesting musical contests will be held at the Granite stake amusement hall. On these evenings the pre-liminaries for the big annual M. I. A. contest on March 18 will take place. Over 50 entries have already been received. The prizes amount to upwards of $200. Tracy Y. Cannon is the official judge of the contests.

Requisition is Approved-Governor Requisition is Approved—Governor William Sory issued requisition papers Saturday for the return of John W. Haynes alias F. H. Mendenhall, who is wanted at Ogden for obtaining money by false pretenses. Haynes is now under arrest in Present, Arizona, and Chief Browning of Ogden has gone after the prisoner. He is charged with having passed a worthless check for $100 on R. S. Joyce.

Funeral of Charles Knight-The body of Charles Knisht was buried in the city cemetery Sunday afternoon, after impressive services at the Fourth ward chapel, where Bishon Charles Worthen presided. The speakers were David McKenzie. Sylvester Cannon, Bishon Sperry and others, all of whom recounted worthy events in the life of the deceased. The music was furnished by a quartet from the Fourth ward choir. Auto Stage Line Changes Hands-R. Tanner has bought out the interests of the Utah Transportation company in the Milford-Beaver Automobile stage line, at private sale, and is now in charge of the property. It is 33 miles between Milford and Beaver, and time schedules are now so arranged that one can leave Salt Lake in the evening, and be able to get back from Beaver on the return in two nights and a day.

Looking up their Record—Roland K. Goddard, chief of the United States secret service at Denver, is in the city investigating the case of counterfeiting against Frank E. Sprague and William Morgan who were arrested here some time ago for passing bogus half dollars at Ogden and in Salt Lake. Goddard secured photographs of the two men and will compare them with Bertillion records before the case comes up for trial.

King Completely Exonerated—It has developed that E. B. King, who was arrested here Friday on the charge of issuing a fraudulent check on the Randall-Dodd Automobile company and cashing it at Ogden, is not guilty of the charge. It seems that another man had forged both the name of the automobile company name of the automobile company and Mr. King to a check for $5. King went to Ogden where the matter was straightened out and he was com-pletely exonerated.

Brand New Citizens-Gilbert Henry Brand New Citizens—Gilbert Henry Hutchinson and Carl Jensen were admitted to citizenship by Judge John A. Marshall in the United States district court this morning. Mr. Hutchinson was a native of Canada, residing in the United States since May, 1888. Mr. Jensen repounced his allegiance to the king of Denmark after a residence in the United States beginning in Sept. 1875. Owing to the absence of witnesses the application for citizenship of Anast Koulis was continued for hearing one month.

Mexican Consul for Salt Lake—Governor William Spry decided Saturday to petition the secretary of the interior asking that the Mexican government be requested to appoint a consul to represent the republic in Salt Lake. The action will be taken at a meeting which will be held by Governor Spry and Charles S. Timgey, secretary of state, this week. The matter has been under consideration for some time on account of the increase of business between citizens of Utah and the Mexican government. Mexican Consul for Salt Lake-

Corporation Delinquents-Pursuan to the provisions of the statute U. S Revenue Collector E. H. Callister wil shortly deliver to the United States shortly deliver to the United States district attorney a list of corporations failing to make the required return of incomes prior to March 1. Owing to the fact that no record is kept of the corporations within the state becoming extinct or dissolving, the list of delinquents will not be given to the district attorney until it has been carefully checked over and contains only the names of corporations actually in existence.

Zion's Savings Bank & Trust Co. Transacts a general trust business and pays 4 per cent interest on sav-ing deposits, Joseph F. Smith, presi-dent; Anthon H. Lund Vice President; O. C. Beebe cashier.
